With five styles from which to choose -- including translucent clear, painted black and silver frames and mirrored lenses -- the Sports Series Safety Glasses meet new OSHA-required ANSI Z87.1 standards for high impact protection. High-end mirrored lenses feature seven layers of silicon and titanium dioxide for light blockage and exceptional styling.

MSA Safety Works Sport Series lenses block 99.999 percent of harmful ultraviolet radiation. Additional features include rubber tipped straight temples and a vented brow area for improved fit and comfort. The MSA Safety Works Sports Series Safety Glasses are available at select Home Depot stores. The MSRP is $19.99.
